ATTEND TO YOUR COLDS - A case of five years anding cured by DB. EXYSER'S PROTOSAL SYRUP

WOLL Appressional, Jan. 11, 1860. Da. Kaven — My wife has been afflicted with a bad cough and difficulty of breathing, for fave or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The computation has been heredilary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case, I presured some of your Pectoral Cough Syvany. I bought, the first time, a first cent befile, which relieved her very much; I then called and got u deflar bottle, which curred her entirely, and she has now he those of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. Is press my entire attlefaction, with the medicine, and for are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do to.

DR. KRYER — Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affonts no pleasure indecribeble to recommend year Patent Medicines, in general, it affonts no pleasure indecribeble to recommend year Patent Myrup. As a medicine it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be afflicted with course, order and be removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been, more or less, in my life, affected with the severest of colds and hearseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few times of the none Byrup it would refleve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found, purporting to care the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for disease; so prevalent.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PROTORAL BYRUP.—Da. KEYRER—Dear Sir. Excuse the delay of my acknow ledging the excellence of your Frectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. Remocked the noise out of my cough and the worst one I was ever afflicted with: I have not used more than one half of the hottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am conndent I can be sufficed a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy. You are at Herry to use my name in this regard, as you think proper. E. F. PRATT.

READ THE TRUTH.—Dr. Errara: I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, without benefit—among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.—I purchased from you a bottle of your PECTORAL STRUP, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second hottle cured her entirely of her cough.

A WONDERFUL CURE. —Some time ago, an old neighbor of mine was vary ill, with a bad cough which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me that he had lake never remedy they heard of without beneat; his brother came to see him die, and all without beneat; his balled that he could not live. I without benefit; his brief time to see him the, and all wars confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral savet his life.

Almost everybody around us has the cold and are inquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bettles last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. A. Alter and Mr. P. "STOP THAT COUGHING."—How can I do it?" "Go to Eryste's on Wood street and get a bestie of his Gough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears above very day in cold catching periods of the year. And we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral," in a most stuthern case, with entire success. Mear two weeks age we went to Pittaburgh, with one of the most discreasing, contrary, mulish, unsubleasible coughs we sever experienced since our advent upon this mandam sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week in hopes of hiring it can, but it was no go. In fact it seemed rather to have included by praches, and to have acquired strength, potency and discreasingly by the operation. In this stage of the stage, we can have our way to Reyer's 150 Wood St.—procureds discreased and in forty eight hours was ware insasted of the Stop, the current having unconditionally surrendered, after a brief but unequal conflict with so formidable an edversary as Reyer's famous "Cough Pectoral." — Procures the Copper, Dect 14, 1879.

The great celebrity and increasing demand for this unequaled preparation, convinces the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation in use. It demands the head and scalp from dandriff and other cutaneous diseases, causing the hair to grow insurinantly, giving it a rich, soft, glossy and flexible appearance, and also, where the thir is loosening and thinning, it will give strength and vigor to the roots and restore the growth to hose parts which have become baid, causing it to yield a reah covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this lavigorator, when all other praparations have failed. I. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respects bility. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed it nosion, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore is to it to its original hae, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. Il Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and, viewed in this light, it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be elsevided under two names, viz: Bymptomatic and Idiopathic. Bymptomatic Headache is exceedingly common, and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplery, Gout, Rheumstism, and all febrite diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of diseases of the stomach, constituting sick headache, of hopatic disease constituting billous headache, of worms, constipation, and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with headaches; anasmia and plethora are also affection which frequently cocasion headache. Idiopathic headache is also very common, being utually distinguished by the name of reservous headache sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health, and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, here aided by depression of aprils or asserbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Newaches.

For the treatment of either class of headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and asfe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and, by its subtle power, eradicating the diseases of which headache is the unerring index.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills that flesh is hair io" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness, often originating in carelessness, or asdectary babits. It is regarded as a slight disorder, of to little consequence to axcite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fittal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated, it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which Coativeness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colie, Rheumatian, Foul Breath, Piles, and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases, such as Malignant Fewers, Abcesses, Dysenlery, Diarrhosa, Dyspeysia, Apoplexy, Epilepey, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondrinaia, Melancholy, and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this plainting aymptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is aradicated in an arry stage. From all these considerations, it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pilis on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious appreaches of disease, and destroy this dangerous foe to human life. of the "many ills that flesh is hair to" is
